

LETTER FROM THE BOARD...

I would like to take this opportunity to speak about community and support. Over the past few years, and especially the past few months we have all felt our belts tightening as well as the stresses of our nation and the world in unrest. We have been deluged with many concerns and fears from our gas tanks to our bank accounts. We are made aware of worries on a daily basis as the airwaves give us little peace. These times can take quite a toll on all of us and we may feel like retreating under our beds. But these are the times that we need each other more than ever. We are fortunate to have a community that we can count on, where we are loved and supported, where we can feel joy and friendship in spite of negative surroundings.

The heart of this community is the people, and the soul is the music. Although things are tough and prices are rising nowhere can we get more soul fulfilling bang for our buck than at a folk community event: a house concert, coffeehouse concert, main folk event, open mic, etc. Is there anything better to invest in than something we love and that gives love in return? No stock can give such valuable dividends.

The 2008/2009 music season is underway and many artists are again on the road to Florida to share their art with us, and along with this come higher expenses in gas, food, lodging, etc. Many artists have stopped touring far distances due to these higher costs. And not only are they being slammed by the costs, but concert attendance is also down thus their income. For a great many artists this is their only way of putting food on the table. When we support our community and artists we help each other, we keep the song alive in everyone's hearts and nourish the soul. We all benefit and keep alive something very special and quite rare.

Many are hard at work to make the upcoming months full of song for our souls and friendship. There are many house concerts available. Places like the Luna Star Café and John Martin's Pub (there are more, please see our events listings) have some incredible events planned. The members of the BFC are working tirelessly to bring us all many great events and insure the continuation of staples. One in particular is the Round-Up coming in January. Though the club cannot afford a full festival, we will keep the momentum going with an event which supports local as well as national talent and they are supporting the community by giving much for as little as possible to keep our dreams alive. The lineup is really shaping up to be an amazing one. Remember, this is a fundraiser to make possible the continuation of the South Florida Folk Festival.

So the next time you are feeling a little down and the weight of the world on your shoulders, look through the local club newsletters and/or www.gotfolk.com and get out with your friends. It is amazing how quickly one can shed that "funk" with a simple smile, song or both. Let's all pull together to ensure the future of this marvelous community built from many hearts. And don't forget the Sunday afternoon lifeline at 91.3 on your FM radio with Michael Stock from 2 – 5 PM.

17th Annual Lumpy Sue Acoustic MusicFest 2008

Friday, November 28, 2008 (the day after Thanksgiving), 11:00 a.m. until sunset

Greynolds Park, 17530 West Dixie Highway, North Miami Beach, FL (additional entrance at the corner of Miami Gardens Drive and NE 22nd Avenue (follow signs from either park entrance to the festival)) Concert is FREE! Nominal Parking fee collected by Miami-Dade County Parks and Recreation Department ($5 per vehicle)

Lumpy Sue is a free concert that highlights local folk and acoustic musicians in a tranquil and relaxing setting. The festival organizers have created an atmosphere of family fun and friendship on a day that is otherwise one of retail frenzy. In an anti-mall anti-stress gesture, festival organizers have gathered musicians and their local fans for a day of mellow entertainment. Now in its 17th year, more people have discovered that it's the perfect way to digest Thanksgiving dinner, and take an extra day of thanks for the great South Florida weather, the great people in our community and the great music our local talent has to offer. Moreover, it's a chance to help a great cause.

In addition to offering some of the best musical talent, (past festivals have presented Diane Ward, Ellen Bukstel, Grant Livingston and Amy Carol Webb), the day also includes a raffle for great prizes, including fantastic dinners and hotel stays. 100% of the proceeds from raffle sales benefit Habitat For Humanity of Greater Miami, helping to build homes in partnership with deserving people right here in South Florida.

After a year hearing promises for change, at a time when we need it the most, it is time for something different. For those who have attended Lumpy Sue over the years, you'll notice a change. The location of the event, this year is not at the boathouse. While that venue undergoes some renovations, the MusicFest will be held in the center of the park, with ample room under the oak trees.

Bring a blanket or beach chair, pack yourself some leftover turkey and fixins, bring just enough cash to buy some raffle tickets (sold at the event only at $5.00 each 3 for $10 or 5 for $20), and relax for a day of music, mellowness and merriment.

For more information about the concert, how to get involved, to donate items or services for the raffle, or get directions to the park, log on to the web site at www.LumpySue.org or call 786-999-5567.

Kraig Kenning & Lauren Adams

www.kraigkenning.com,
www.laurenadams.com

7 PM potluck, 8 PM concert

Artist Donation: $15

Call him contemporary folk, blues, roots rock, American Fingerstyle or Americana. Regardless of the genres crossed, Kraig Kenning manages to leave every audience feeling like they've just spent some quality time with an old friend. "There is an exchange at a spiritual level in a great performance. My goal is to journey with all my listeners to this magical place." Together with his trademark dobro and passionate lyrics, Kraig reminds us just how personal--and potent--original music can be.

On L.A.'s indie music scene, Lauren Adams has developed a reputation for giving her heart and soul to her music. Adams' music is a fusion of rock, folk, country, and blues, which is better known as Roots or Americana. Her sound is undeniably unique. She has combined her dedication to keeping things real and her spirit of giving back to others in all of her efforts. By doing so, Adams became one of the most widely respected singer-songwriters in California.

Diane Ward, (joined by Jack Shawde and Debbie Duke)

www.dianeward.com

6 PM potluck, 7 PM concert

Artist Donation: $15

Since I first got into the local acoustic music world Diane Ward has been one of my top favorites. She is not only an incredible songwriter but one of the best at stage presence that I have experienced. Together with Jack Shawde and Debbie Duke they make for a trio with few equals. They have received rave reviews all over South Florida and beyond and in 2006 Diane was named the BEST singer/songwriter by City Link. Some of you may have been to my house to see Magda Hiller, Diane Ward and Jack Shawde; and last year we were graced with Marianne Flemming in the gang as well. Well Diane, Jack and Debbie are just as much fun. The interactions always make for some big smiles and the way these three click musically is magic.

I am planning to have this concert in my back yard if the weather cooperates so dress accordingly and feel free to bring a comfortable lawn chair.

Eric Schwartz

www.eric schwartz.com

8 PM • $15

PA disc jockey Otto Bost wrote, "Eric is a writer who has mastered many styles, and his songs are as varied as the people of New York...The thread that holds them together is the solid craftsmanship of a young man with a pen in his hand, and an intriguingly offbeat view of the world." Fans and music journalists have tried to describe an Eric Schwartz show. Some talk about Eric's gorgeous voice with its baritone-to-Bee-Gees vocal range, the intelligent way in which he uses satire and irony to convey a message, or the tremendous energy and personality he infuses into every show. But most will add, "You'll just have to experience it for yourself."

Check made out to Eric Schwartz. Mail to: Ellen Bukstel, 14640 Mustang Trail, Southwest Ranches, FL 33330

Weller uses her journalistic skills to give a balanced portrayal enriched by a wealth of new information, much of it from friends and colleagues, many of whom are speaking in these pages for the first time. Janet Maslin of The New York Times calls the book, “Captivating. A strong amalgam of nostalgia, feminist

Coyote Run

What's not to love about a multi-instrumental (bagpipes, guitars, accordion, whistles, didgeridoo, electric bass, etc.) Celtic group... where the drummer is a woman and the men are in kilts?!? Originally formed in 1999, Coyote Run has changed significantly from its Celtic Folk roots, evolving into one of the hottest bands on the Celtic Rock circuit today. Blending traditional tunes with rich, literate lyrics, compelling melodies and rock, jazz and flamenco instrumental hooks, this band weaves a tapestry unlike any other out there. Their lyrics and music take the audience on a journey that is at once heart stopping and foot stomping. Tears, laughter, clapping and spontaneous dancing are regular features of a Coyote Run concert.

www.coyoterun.com

$15 at the door, plus non-perishable item for our local Cooperative Feeding Program; advance reservations: $12, checks (made out to Coyote Run) received in the UU church office (address above, c/o Labyrinth Cafe) no later than Wednesday before Saturday show.

We're once again offering a season pass (now $80 per person), which includes admission to the remaining 7 November-May shows, as well as a Labyrinth Cafe T-shirt (designed and printed by Virginia and Erik, Labyrinth Cafe volunteers) and premium reserved seating. It's a wonderful way to support the UU church, our performers and the continuation of live, original music!
